NAIF HAWATIMAH LEAVES ADEN

ADEN, Feb. 13. - ANA - Comrade Naif Hawatimah, Secretary General of the Democratic Front for the Liberation of Palestine, and his accompanying delegation left Aden at dawn today after a visit to Democratic Yemen which lasted several days. He was seen off by Comrade Abdel Ghani Abdel Qader, Member of the Political Bureau and CC Secretary.

In a statement made to ANA before departure Comrade Hawatimah said that his visit to Democratic Yemen came in response to an invitation from the CC of the Yemeni Socialist Party and during this visit he and his accompanying delegation held a series of working meetings with the Political Bureau of the Yemeni Socialist Party and bilateral meetings with Comrade Ali Nasser Mohammad, CC Secretary General and Chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme People's Council and Premier.

He added that he discussed the conditions in the Middle East area in the light of the American, Israel and Arab reactionary threats especially after the outcome of the Fez summit and the decision of the Zionist enemy to annex the Syrian Golan as the area is witnessing threats from America and Israel on the South Lebanon. He added that he also discussed the Arab conditions in the light of the essential reasons arising for holding the summit of the steadfastness and confrontation front before next April for confronting the American and Israeli threats and building the joint corporations of the front and making serious measures and actions for boycotting the United States of America economically, and in the sphere of oil and gas and withdrawal of accounts from its banks and closure of the front's markets in the face of the United States of America.

Comrade Hawatimah pointed out that his talks with the officials in Democratic Yemen reaffirm our full rally around the necessity of the joint struggle within the framework of the national movement in general and the framework of the steadfastness and confrontation front in particular and for developing and promoting the bilateral relations between the Yemeni Socialist Party and the Democratic Front for the Liberation of Palestine and between the Palestinian and Yemeni revolutions.

He affirmed that the talks between the two sides were crowned with great success and expressed the hope that they will truly serve the two Palestinian and Yemeni revolutions and the process of Arab steadfastness in the face of the American and Israeli expansionist threats to the good of the Arab masses and to ensure the needs of the state of defence in order to force the enemy retreat and ensure withdrawal from all occupied Arab territories which were occupied in June, 1967 and safeguarding the historical and firm national rights of the Palestinian people topped by the right to return back and determine its destiny and build its independent national state under the banner of the Palestine Liberation Organisation the sole and legitimate representative of the Palestinian people. The following is the full text of the joint communique issued on the visit made by Comrade Naif Hawatimah and his accompanying delegation to Democratic Yemen:-

"At an invitation from the CC of the Yemeni Socialist Party, addressed by Cr. Ali Nasser Mohammad, CC Secretary General and Chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme People's Council and Premier, a delegation from the Democratic Front for the Liberation of Palestine headed by Comrade Naif Hawatimah, Secretary General of the front paid a visit to the PDRY during the period 4th to 12th February, 1982. The delegation included Comrade Abu Farras, representative of the Democratic Front in Aden. During this visit the delegation held talks featured by extreme importance, with Comrade Ali Nasser Mohammad, CC Secretary General and Chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme People's Council and Premier. It also met a number of leaders of the Party and State. During all these meetings, both sides reviewed the total conditions and Yemeni and Palestinian and Arab political developments that occurred following their meeting in October, 1980. They also reviewed the developments occurring in the international situation in general.

"All talks held by the DFLP delegation with the leaders of the Party and State in the PDRY, took place in an atmosphere of frankness, brotherhood, and comradeship that signify the cordial combat relations between the two sides. During the visit, the DFLP delegation got conversed with the pioneer revolutionary developments in Democratic Yemen particularly during the period that followed the convening of the extraordinary general congress of the Yemeni Socialist Party. The DFLP delegation noticed with special admiration those efforts made by the CC of the Yemeni Socialist Party under the leadership of militant Comrade Ali Nasser Mohammad which will share in establishing and consolidating the leading role of the Yemeni Socialist Party amidst the ranks of the workers and toilers of the country and lead to consolidation of the position of the progressive regime and safeguard and defend its democratic and revolutionary accomplishments and develop the branches of the national union in a way fulfilling the interests of the popular groups for improving the living standard and the life of the people in all economic, social, educational and cultural fields, a thing that falls in harmony with the programmes and resolutions of the extraordinary general congress of the Yemeni Socialist Party and the resolutions of the CC.

"The two Yemeni and Palestinian sides stressed upon the special importance of the struggle of the Yemeni Socialist Party and masses of the Yemeni people for consolidating and backing the struggle for realising Yemeni unity on national and democratic bases depending on the free will of the people in both parts of the country. In this sphere, the DFLP delegation expressed its full support for the sincere and brotherly efforts being made by the Yemeni Socialist Party. It also praised in particular the efforts of Comrade militant Ali Nasser Mohammad, CC Secretary General and Chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme People's Council and Premier which led to the conclusion of the Aden agreement between the two sister parts.

"In turn the DFLP delegation expressed deep admiration for the role being played by the Yemeni Socialist Party in deepening and strengthening the relations of combat cohesion between the PDRY and the groups of the Arab liberation and progressive movement and admired in particular the role of the PDRY within the framework of the Arab steadfastness and confrontation front. The delegation noticed with great satisfaction the developed comradely relations between the PDRY and the socialist countries and particularly the Soviet Union.

"The two sides stressed upon the necessity and importance of continuing the consolidation and development of these relations to serve the strengthening of the unified front hostile to imperialism, zionism, racism and reaction for the sake of building the world of liberation, peace, social progress and socialism.

"The two sides stressed upon the importance of continuation by Democratic Yemen of its active role for consolidating and developing the relations of friendship and cooperation between the Arab countries and the Soviet Union and other countries side by side with its special and signified vanguard role within the framework of the Arab liberation and progressive movement.

"The DFLP delegation expressed deep admiration for the numerous accomplishments achieved by the PDRY under the leadership of the Yemeni Socialist Party in all political, economic, social and cultural fields throughout the years that followed national independence and the special successes in the field of external policy at Arab and international levels by consolidating and developing the relations with the steadfastness and confrontation front and the socialist countries. In this respect the DFLP delegation praised5..

in particular the great successes achieved by the Yemeni Socialist Party during the period that followed their meeting in October, 1980. It mentioned in particular the tripartite Aden treaty which was concluded between Democratic Yemen, the Libyan Jamahiriya and the Socialist Republic of Ethiopia and the outstanding services that it can render to the struggle of the forces of liberation and progress in the Arabian Peninsula, Red Sea and the Horn of Africa.

"The DFLP delegation strongly condemned the American and Arab reactionary military manoeuvres in which Egypt, the Sudan, Somalia and Oman took part with the aim of terrorising the forces of liberation and progress especially in the Libyan Jamahiriya, Democratic Yemen and Ethiopia. The DFLP delegation expressed firm support for these three countries to fully and legally defend the sanctity of their territories and air space in the way they see suitable against such American military manoeuvres.

"In this respect the DFLP delegation supported the call addressed by Comrade Ali Nasser Mohammad for holding a summit meeting between the countries of the Arabian Peninsula and Gulf, the Horn of Africa and the other countries concerned with the aim of clearing the area from imperialist military bases. It regarded this call as a new proof of the soundness of the policy of peaceful coexistence raised by the government of the PDRY.

"In the mutual talks between the two parties, the Palestinian delegation headed by Comrade Naif Hawatimah, Secretary General of the DFLP, presented to the leaders of the PARTY and State in the PDRY the latest developments in the Arab area and their relations with the Palestinian issue and the other zones of the Arab struggle and stood at length before the struggles of the Palestinian and Lebanese peoples for foiling the bids to generalise the Camp David accords in the Arab area especially in connection with its Palestinian sphere, and to follow up the joint struggle of the Arab steadfastness and confrontation front forces against all projects aiming at liquidation of the Palestinian issue.

"The two sides noticed with great attention the outcome of the Fez summit as a remarkable evidence of the sufficient energies in the steadfastness and confrontation front which was able to foil the bids that aimed at completing what the Camp David accords failed to accomplish and to pull the Arab countries to advanced and unconditional recognition of the state of the Zionist enemy. Both sides agreed upon continuing the confrontation of such projects. Both sides warned against bids to wrest an Arab resolution approving the eight-point project under the title of Arab own initiative or under any other title.

"They affirmed that any Arab solidarity not depending upon the resolutions of the Arab summits in Algeria, Rabat and Baghdad in connection with the Palestinian issue and not accepted by the Palestine Liberation Organisation and the Palestinian revolution is regarded a fake solidarity. Both sides warned to the seriousness of the American imperialist endeavours and those of Arab reaction which is in collusion with it and their feverish endeavours to make Egypt, with its Sadat attitude and chained by the Camp David accords, return back to the rank of Arab solidarity. They affirmed their joint determination to march in the struggle for foiling these aggressive plans of American imperialism and Arab reaction.

"The Yemeni delegation re-expressed continuation of its firm support for the struggle of the Palestinian Arab people for wresting its legitimate national rights topped by its right to return back and determine its destiny and establish its independent national State under the leadership of the Palestine Liberation Organisation, the sole and legitimate representative of the masses of the Palestinian people inside and outside the occupied homeland. It also reaffirmed its firm adherence to all Arab and international resolutions supporting the firm rights of the Palestinian people.

The two delegations expressed their satisfaction with the brotherly combat relations between the PDRY and the Palestine Liberation Organisation and revolution.

"The Palestinian delegation reviewed the struggles and steadfastness of the Palestinian masses inside the occupied territories and praised in particular the brave massive uprisings witnessed by all villages and towns of the occupied homeland against the civil administration which the Zionist enemy tried to impose on the country and valued highly the national and prominent role played by the national forces and dignitaries including the majority of the municipal mayors.

"The Yemeni delegation expressed deep admiration for the struggle of the Palestinian people inside the occupied territory and re-expressed the hope that the struggles of the masses in the occupied homeland would be crowned in the revival of the Palestine national front in the capacity that it is the striking arm of the liberation organisation in the occupied territory. It urged in this respect the groups of the Palestinian revolution to work seriously for ensuring the establishment of this front and its shouldering of the national tasks against occupation and for national liberation and independence.

"The Yemeni delegation reaffirmed support for all efforts based on the resolutions of the Palestine National Council for uniting the groups of the Palestinian revolution under the banner of the political and organisational programmes of the Palestine Liberation Organisation.

"In the course of its support for the liberation organisation and the groups of the Palestine revolution, the delegation of the Yemeni Socialist Party expressed satisfaction with and welcome for the special and signified role being played by the DFLB within the framework of the Palestine National Front in the occupied territories for the sake of consolidation national unity between the groups of the revolution within the framework of the Palestine Liberation Organisation and the role being undertaken by the DFLP in defining the struggling and national tasks of the Palestinian people within the framework of the Arab liberation and progressive movement in addition to its role by the side of the groups of the Arab liberation and progressive movements within the framework of the liberation and progressive movement in the world.

"Both sides called upon the forces of the Arab liberation and progressive movement including the steadfastness and confrontation front to extend all forms of backing and support to the ^{three} national and revolutionary groups in the foreward confrontation line, the Palestine revolution, Syria and the Lebanese national movement. Both sides regarded the consolidation and development of the combat relations between these three forces as to constitute one of the most significant assurances for Arab steadfastness and confrontation against the imperialist, Zionist and reactionary plans.

"The two delegations warned against bids by Zionist Israel to launch a new military aggression against the Palestine revolution, Syria and the Lebanese national movement particularly in the South Lebanon and warned against the increase of the seriousness of this whether before or after the 25th of April. They also warned against being involved in pulling the Palestine revolution towards a liquidatory settlement based on American conditions for escaping confrontation of the Israeli military aggression.

"Democratic Yemen reaffirmed its complete preparedness to support the Palestine revolution and the Lebanese national movement and Syria in any confrontation with the Zionist enemy. Both sides called for the extension of firm backing to the Palestine resistance and the Lebanese national movement and Syria for foiling the plans which aim at weakening the Palestinian revolution and pacifying its liberation organisation and turning it into an unarmed political organisation with the aim of weakening and minimising the Lebanese national movement for the sake of the American, Israeli and Lebanese isolationist settlement for Lebanon at the expense of the unity and Arabism of Lebanon and its free democratic development and also at weakening ...8..

Syria prior to its subjugation.

"Both sides praised the steadfastness and sacrifices of the brotherly Lebanese people and its national and progressive forces and their legitimate national and patriotic combat stands for defending the Palestine revolution and liberation organisation. Both sides also expressed their firm support for Syria against the reactionary bids and the Muslim brothers attempt to plant sectarian intrigue and fighting within the ranks of the people and strongly condemned the decisions of the Israeli enemy to annex the occupied Syrian Golan Heights. They affirmed that Zionist Israel would have not dared to do this if it were not for full support from the United States of America. They condemned in this respect the use by AMERICAN IMPERIALISM of the Veto to prevent the adoption of any resolution in the U.N. to boycott Israel.

"Both sides also reviewed the Arab conditions and stressed upon the importance of continuing the struggle for constant unity on democratic bases. They praised the increasing role shouldered by the Egyptian national movement.

"The two sides also reviewed the conditions in the Arabian Peninsula and Gulf and the area of the Red Sea and Horn of Africa and stressed upon the importance of establishing relations between the countries of this area on the basis of the principles of peaceful co-existence and respect of sovereignty equal relations and cooperation as a main condition for making their peoples evade dangers resulting from the increase of tension which are being fed by the imperialism of the United States of America and increase of its threats against its security and stability. In this sphere both the Yemeni and Palestinian sides affirmed their full and firm condemnation of the United States of America and its policy which is based on the construction of aggressive military bases in Egypt, Oman, Somalia and the Sudan, Kenya and other countries. Both sides called upon the peoples of the area and their national forces for backing the joint struggle for liquidating their oil interests and these American aggressive bases and for inflicting defeat upon the imperialism of the United States of America and liquidation of its oil, and economic interests. Both sides also affirmed their full condemnation of the attitude of enmity and hostility to communism and the Soviet Union which hostility is basically aimed at hiding the greed of American imperialism and its policy hostile to the security and stability of the Arab area and the national interests of the peoples fighting for their national liberation.

"Both sides warned against the consequences of what is being aimed behind the policy of military and security pacts and in particular those in which are taking part countries which extend facilities and military bases to American imperialism such as those extended by the Government of Oman.

"Both sides agreed upon the necessity of convening the sixth summit of the countries and forces of the Arab steadfastness and confrontation Front soonest and regarded that the stressing assignment that must be tackled by the sixth summit and accomplished is "to start actual implementation of its previous resolutions and particularly the construction of its unified institutions and imposition of economic measures on the U.S. including stoppage of the pumping of oil to it and closure of markets in its face and to adopt all resolutions that would consolidate and develop the steadfastness of its parties in the face of the imperialist, Zionist and reactionary offensive which aim at weakening the steadfastness front as a basic condition for effecting the passage of the Israeli aggressive and expansionist plans.

"Both sides expressed their support for the struggles of the brotherly Omani people under the leadership of the Popular Front for the Liberation of Oman for liquidating and expelling the American military bases from the Omani territories and for a free and democratic Oman. Both sides also expressed support for the struggles of the Saharan people for its right to consolidate its destiny under the leadership of the Polisario. They also praised the military victories of the Saharan people in the field and the increasing international recognition of the Sahara republic.

"Both sides renewed their solidarity with the Ethiopian revolution and valued the efforts of the Ethiopian revolutionary leadership to safeguard the unity of Ethiopia and promotion of its economic and social conditions. They also valued the great basic steps cut by the leadership of the revolution for building the working people's party, the vanguard of the workers and peasants and all toilers in Ethiopia.

"Both sides reviewed with great care and attention the war raging between Iraq and Iran and the great services this war is doing to American imperialism and the Israeli enemy and the great damages it is causing to the joint struggles of the Arab and Iranian peoples against the common enemy and in particular the Camp David pact. Both sides stressed upon the necessity of halting the war which is causing damages to the interests of the Iraqi people and the Iranian peoples and serves the interests and plans of imperialism and Zionism."

"Both delegations reviewed the development of conditions at international level and expressed their satisfaction with and support for the steps made by the government of Poland for solving the internal problems. Both sides resented the American interferences in the internal affairs of Socialist Poland and the American boycott and other measures against Poland and the soviet Union and asked all forces of liberation, progress, peace and socialism in the world to continue to back up the citizens of Poland for ridding their country from all tensions and difficulties so that Poland remains socialist for ever.

"The two sides expressed their deep satisfaction with the victories achieved by the peoples of Indo-China, South-West Asia, the African Continent Nicaragua and the alignment of the peoples of these countries to the camp of the forces of liberation, progress and socialism which is becoming greater constantly due to the struggle of these peoples which is depending upon the firm internationalist backing of the Soviet Union and the other socialist countries.

"Both sides greeted the stubborn struggle being waged by the people of the El Salvador under the leadership of its national and progressive forces against the reactionary military clique and American imperialist interference in the internal affairs of the country. They also greeted with great prestige the steadfastness of socialist Cuba in the face of the manoeuvres and provocations of the United States and renewed their firm support for the just struggle of the peoples of the Caribbean and Central and Latin America.

"Both sides reaffirmed their backing for the efforts of the Soviet Union and the countries of the socialist community in supporting the front hostile to imperialism and their efforts to consolidate detente and peaceful co-existence for safeguarding the gains of peoples and world peace and security. They, in this respect, condemn firmly the policy of the United States of America to manufacture the neutron bomb and establish and develop new bases for medium-range nuclear rockets in West Europe and to hint of a limited nuclear war.

"During his visit to the PDRY, Comrade Naif Hawatimah, Secretary General of the DFLP, delivered a speech at the opening meeting of the World Peace Council held in Aden during the period 6th to 9th February and dedicated to the issues of the Middle East and the dangers of imperialist military build-up. He and his accompanying delegation also paid a visit to Hadhramaut Governorate where he met the leadership of the Party and governorate and took part in the celebrations earmarked for the 13th anniversary of the ignition of the DFLP.

"During all talks conducted between the delegations of the Yemeni Socialist Party and the DFLP, both delegations noticed with deep satisfaction the firm development of the combat relations between them in all fields and renewed their joint preparedness to continue consultation and coordination on all issues that concern the struggle of the two Yemeni and Palestinian peoples and the peoples of the Arab nation and the struggle of the world liberation and progressive movement.

"For the sake of consolidating these relations the third agreement for bilateral cooperation between them was concluded.

"At the end of the visit Comrade Naif Hawatimah and his accompanying delegation expressed deep admiration for the hospitality and good reception accorded to them and the results of the talks with the leadership of the Yemeni Socialist Party."
